The Heritage Award for Volunteer Public Service goes to Dianne Wilson for her long-term dedication and commitment to the cause of heritage preservation.

"Every two years the Heritage Awards are presented by the City of Saskatoon to acknowledge efforts to ensure the preservation and restoration of buildings of heritage value in our community," stated Joseph-Michel Fortier, Chair of the Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee. "The Volunteer Award recognizes an individual well known in both the heritage community and in Saskatoon for their zealous efforts to preserve and protect our built heritage and to enrich Saskatoon's heritage profile. It recognizes an immense amount of personal energy, time, and commitment dedicated to Saskatoon's cultural welfare."

"The quality and number of applications received demonstrates a vital interest on the part of Saskatoon residents in preserving and conserving the historic properties left to us by our urban ancestors so that they can be appreciated and enjoyed by future generations." Mr. Fortier added. "On behalf of the Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee, thank-you to City Council for their support, to the participants involved in the events, and a sincere congratulations to the worthy recipients of the 2008 Municipal Heritage Awards."

The awards will be presented in City Council Chambers, City Hall, on Tuesday, February 19, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. A reception will follow at 7:30 p.m., in the City Hall Cafeteria, 4th Floor, City Hall.
